“ Ashley was a very good friend she always had a smile on her face no matter what was going on or how bad she was feeling. She love her famfily more than life it's self. She had finally had found the man of her dreams when she met Sammy Norris they truly loved each other. She was outgoing a true friend she was always there to put a smile on your face when you was down and out. She was there for you when you needed to talk no matter how big or how small the talk was she would listen to you and would give her advice on the matter even if it hurt your feelings she told the truth about it but she done that cause that's what a true friend dose and she was a true friend. She will be loved and missed very much. To her mother and father you had a wonderful daughter that loved yall to the moon and back. To her sisters she loved very much also. To her sister Brandy you and Bryson was her world she talked about yall all the time. She always talked about him she said her would call her Ashley when he was just taking to her or mad at her but when he wanted something she said he would call her Ash. She will be missed. To the family if there is anything that I can do or if you need someone to talk to I'm here for each one of you no matter what time of the day or night it is I'm here. Love yall

“ My heart aches for your loss. I wish there were words that could offer comfort, but I know of none. It seems only yesterday we watched our little girls laughing and splashing around in your pool. In the years to come you will find the smallest memories to be most cherished. Write them down. When you feel as if you can't go another day revisit your book of memories and there, by the loving grace of God, you will find the strength to carry on. Learning to live with joy and grief simultaneously will come. But now, in this very raw place, I pray you grab hold of the only one who can comfort you. He knows your suffering, and He hurts with you. Psalms 56:8 says, He knows your pain, He records your tears and collects them in a jar. I truly am monumentally grieved for your family. I'm so very sorry.
