

Betty Ann Carter Sellers

February 23, 1939 - May 30, 2024

Betty Ann Carter Sellers, a dedicated Registered Nurse who was instrumental in delivering thousands of babies throughout Georgia and Florida, passed away on May 30, 2024, at The Oaks Bethany in Vidalia. She will always be remembered for her remarkable career as an RN, including serving as the director of nursing for Jeff Davis County Hospital and later retiring from her role at Appling County Healthcare. Betty also shared her knowledge by teaching nursing school, leaving a lasting impact on countless individuals in the healthcare field. Born on February 23, 1939, Betty graduated from Georgia Baptist College in 1959 with a RN degree, marking the beginning of a lifelong commitment to caring for others. Beyond her professional accomplishments, she was deeply involved in her community and church. Betty was a cherished member of Midway Baptist Church, where she taught GA's and Ladies Sunday School, showcasing her devotion to both faith and education. Described as a wonderful and loving mother and grandmother, Betty's nurturing spirit touched the lives of many. She truly embodied the role of caregiver in all aspects of her life. Betty is preceded in death by her husband of forty-five years, Hal Thomas Sellers; her parents, Reverend Marvin, and Lillie Carter; and one sibling, Bobbie Ware. Betty leaves behind a loving legacy carried on by her surviving family members. She is survived by her two children, Jason Sellers and Leigh Ann Hutcheson (Michael); six grandchildren: Lynsey Nicole Sellers, Jason Thomas Sellers, Matthew Hutcheson, Lilly Hutcheson, Darren Hutcheson, and Anna Hutcheson; one great grandchild, Ava Clair Hutcheson; as well as one sibling, Christine Crosby Jacobs. A visitation will be held on June 2, 2024, from 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM at Nobles Funeral Home in Baxley. The funeral service will take place on June 3, 2024, at 11:00 AM at Midway Baptist Church with Reverend Benji McReady and Reverend Wayne Williamson officiating. Interment will follow in the Midway Church Cemetery. Active Pallbearers are Jason Sellers, Jason Thomas Sellers, Darren Hutcheson, Paul Ware, Michael Ware, and Jimmy Crosby. Honorary Pallbearers are the members of Midway Baptist Church and the staff of Lakeview Retirement Center. Nobles Funeral Home and Crematory is honored to serve the family of Ms. Betty Ann Carter Sellers.

“ Hi I'm sure you probably don't know me but I'm John Holton's daughter, we just wanted to express our love and tell you all how sorry we were to hear of Aunt Ann's passing. She was a sweet kind and gentle soul. I didn't get to know her well but the times I did she was an angel on earth and my dad was very fond of her to. I believe they were cousins. She will be missed by anyone she came in contact with even if just once you didn't forget her.

“ Dear Aunt Ann. Lord only knows how you will be missed upon this earth. You will forever live in our hearts with love and gratefulness of just being the dear Aunt you were. You helped each of us in the understanding of God's word and our everlasting life eternal by reminding us "Be Ready". Our hearts are deeply saddened with our earthly loss of your presence. We will see you in the clouds that glorious day we rejoice and sing praises to the Lord. Thank you Aunt Ann we will see you in our life eternal. Until we meet again we Love you Rick and Lisa

“ We loved Mrs. Betty Ann, and Mr. Hal.; Mr. Hal was a devoted Deacon of Midway Baptist Church and Mrs. Betty Ann served by his side well, she was a sweet kind lady! Tim & I have known her just about all our lives, she was a good cook too, when we had luncheon's at church her cakes, off the chain, we all wanted a slice. To her family I know she will be greatly missed, but this is Heaven's gain. Our prayers are with each of you!
