“ This is a group picture of our Fantasy Football league. We have had this league for many years and he enjoyed it so much. He went out a winner as he won both the league and NFL Survivor this passed season. He will be missed greatly. We loved Uncle Dwain so much.

“ Billie Dwain O'Quinn. Now there is a man that Beth and I always called our Friend. We met at Central Baptist Church, Pastor Bob Martin, in Jacksonville, Florida. Though these last years we have been apart from one another due to living away from each other, we could still pick up the phone and count on a great conversation with Dwain. We love Dwain and he loves Beth and me. We would take trips, just the three of us, all over the place. Micanopy, Florida, Graceland in Memphis, Tennessee (2 times), Vanderbilt Stadium in Nashville, TN with our friend Marianne Gibbs & the three of us, Six Flags Over Georgia, Ichetucknee Springs, GA tubing on the river, Okefenokee Swamp, GA riding our own motor boats, and a hundred other trips !!! Always having a great time together. Listening to Elvis music on cassette tapes as we drove. We also would go to eat fried chicken at Jimmy's Fried Chicken on Normandy Blvd on the Westside of Jacksonville - - after church. And more times than we can count, Spring and Josh would be along with us. Such fond and wonderful memories we have of Dwain. Meeting his HUGE family: Tracy & Alex, his awesome dad, his sweet mama, Lindell, Ray, Wanda, Ronnie & Marci - - and kids everywhere !!! We had fantastic times at the Bahama House with Dwain, Tracy, Spring, EVERYBODY in the O'Quinn Gang !!! Dwain .... we a have huge place in our hearts that you reside in. You are home with Jesus now. You have made your final BIG TRIP to see our Father, Son, Holy Spirit and all of Heaven. We miss you here on earth. But, we know you are beyond happy and praising your Savior like never before !!! God bless ALL of the O'Quinn Family, friends, church friends, everyone who knew our friend, Bille Dwain O'Quinn. - John and Beth Hinzman.
