“ Cecil would have been proud of his nice funeral yesterday. I know that he was thankful for those that attended & the friends & neighbor's who cared for him during his last few months. We were Union Elementary School classmates & childhood neighbor's, long ago. It was good to hear from Brother Quinn & Delmus Hale that Cecil had accepted the Lord as his Savior & was ready to meet his Maker & see his mama. Prayers for all who loved him.

“ Dear Ben & Family, I'm very sad about the loss of your Dad, my Brother. Cecil was suffering both physically and mentally, but now he is resting in a place of peace without physical or mental pain. The pain that was in my heart for him has been eased, knowing he was able to be with you, Ben, before he passed. Cecil wanted that more than anything in this World. God Bless You. I loved my Brother and will always miss him. Suzanne Paul

“ I was so blessed to have spent all of last Tuesday with Uncle Cecil not knowing that it would be the last time we spoke. We had reminisced about old times his love for Hot Rods, fishing and occasional hunting and dont forget his days serving our country in the United States Marine Corps. As a boy growing up he was the coolest guy around. Cecil was a fighter in which I reminded him several times during my visit. Just before I departed for home I sat beside him and said Ill be back Friday to check on you and bring my wife Connie. He said Ill be looking for Ya. And my last words being, hey Uncle Cecil I Love you! And his reply I love you too . Rest in Peace Uncle Cecil we Love you . Jeff and Connie Morris
