“ Sister Connie, You were a faithful wife and Mother: You filled a place in the JD Jones Family that only you could have filled. Yahwey God lent you to them; but He has now moved you to his House. They and we will miss you; but heaven is nearer now to those who knew you down here. Thanks be unto God who has given his Only Begotten Son that we who believe and trust in him have a hope of gathering with you again. Rest in Peace and look with us to that great Home Coming Day. To JD and the members of the Connie Jones Family; May the love of God fill your days and lighten your spirits during this time of grief. Honestly we do not have words to express to you our sympathy or mind and consciousness to comprehend your grief at this great loss. Our prayers are with you and our earnest desire is that more than anything you will know that God the Father and His Son Jesus is with you through it all. The Gooden's
