“ I will always remember Debbie from our carefree high school days to both of us maturing into strong women in our LORD! My last earthly memory is that of Debbie and myself taking charge of kitchen/food detail for the Timothy Courson family. Debbie gave her all for others and whatever she did, she gave God all the glory. I will continue to love her until we meet again_ We will meet again. Praise the sweet Lamb of God.

“ My prayers and thoughts are with the Debbie\'s family..The red candle reminds me of the candy apple red mustang she drove in High School. She was my closest friend in High school for several years..I regret I didn\'t keep in touch with her.
