“ Our dear brother in Christ. You were our friend, pastor and prayer warrior all those years ago. You had prayer for our new home that we would be blessed. A tornado came 2 months later & went through our neighborhood but missed us. Some people were killed. We were blessed & remember your prayer. Another tornado came last year and same thing happened. God led us to move again just in time. I mentioned you at State Ladies Meeting last weekend. Y'all came to some family reunions, just like family. Thank you for the friendship and love over the years. Joyce we will be praying for you!

“ My Sweet Brother-in-law Dorsey, Your kindness, thoughtfulness, many words of wisdom, but most of all the (Precious Love you always gave to my sister Joyce) will be , forever missed.

Our family loves you like a brother, you always had such a sweet Godly spirit toward everyone you encountered in your life, never did I hear you say an unkind word. You went through much pain but never complained. I know without a doubt your spirit is with our Father in Heaven. I can only imagine the reunion you received when you arrived in heaven , what a glorious time you are having with all your family but most of all you meeting Jesus. What a wonderful Day, we are all looking forward to sharing the experience ,when our time comes.
