“ My wife and I met Eddie and Ronda Davis at church, we became instant friends, this would have been back in 1995. We went everywhere together, other church meetings, meals, prayer meetings at our homes and a weekend spent with his Mother in Alabama. He was my best friend, and I called him my brother, in flesh and spirit. My wife and I will miss him immensely, along with Ronda and his family. In our deepest Love and Respect, Rest in Peace Brother, until we meet again.
