“ Elliott was a great man, I remember as a child when he took me out hunting on the ranch and put me in a stand and was sure that our boots were sprayed with the special scent cover. Many years have been missed as the families grow up and away. Love to all the boys and their families and Denise, prayers will continue for your strengths. Love y'all, Casey & Brandon Mumford and family

“ The greatest memory I have is when he put Cody and my daughter, Brooke, on the back of a horse when they were around 3 years old. I was scared to death and he looked at me and simply said "I know what I'm doing" and he did. I was at ease right that moment! Going to miss you!!
