“ Aunt Emma Lee.. I honestly cant believe you're gone. I didn't get to mess you up with my I love you before we hang up one last time. I'm sure you were well aware of just how loved you are though. You've always been the softest, kindest woman. Your love was always that top shelf kind of love. You always loved unconditionally. (Just like papa) You and papa were two peas in a pod actually. I'll miss you, and your laugh and your silliness. I'll miss the way your happiness just radiated no matter the room or circumstances. This family has surely lost another gem. I hope you and papa, and the rest of the family line that has already past are dancing in heaven and proud of the legacies you've left behind.
