“ Aunt Fonnice Mae was a sweet person with a contagious laugh. She loved her family, and she loved to have visitors in her home. She loved unconditionally. I will miss her greatly, but I will see her again in Heaven. She is with other members of our family.

“ We were sorry to hear of Aunt Fannie Mae's passing. She was a wonderful person because of what Christ did for her during her life. She and Uncle Cecil were very humorous and fun to be around. They always welcomed us in their home. You girls did a good job taking care of your parents. We hope to see you in Nov.
