

Frances Louise Thompkins Miller

June 23, 1933 - July 13, 2025

Mrs. Frances Louise Thompkins Miller, age 92, arrived to her eternal home on Sunday, July 13, 2025, surrounded by her family under the care of Comfort Care Hospice, leaving a void her family cannot fill.

Mrs. Louise was a devoted lifetime and charter member of Big Oaks Church of God, serving faithfully and well filling various positions in the church. A Christian mother who cherished the Bible's teachings and promises of Jesus Christ. Christian values were reflected in every aspect of her life and molded her into the person she was.

She had many roles during her life, working in factory settings and retail for Dollar General, BC Moores, and Altamaha Health Care. Mrs. Louise was a family caregiver for many years before becoming a professional caregiver. In 2012, she was nominated for Caregiver of the Year by her granddaughter and was honored to receive the award from the Heart of GA Regional Commission and Mrs. Rosalynn Carter for the seventeen-county region.

She enjoyed watching the Braves play baseball, even personally attending one of their games, and also loved to watch televised church services.

Mrs. Louise was the first of seven children, born June 23, 1933, to the late James F. Thompkins and Vega Bryant Thompkins. She is preceded in death by her beloved husband, George W. Miller, and a brother, Belton Thompkins, and sisters, Irene Wiggins and Georgia Mae Creamer.

Survivors include two daughters, Patricia Ann Zemp and Regina (Bill) Stone; son and daughter-in-love, George Stanley Miller and wife Lolisa Rentz Miller; five grandchildren to treasure her memory, Les Spikes, Clint Spikes, Casey Johnson, William Tyler Stone, and George Matthew Miller; great grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren; brother, Homer Thompkins of Hinesville; sisters, Bertha Buch of Cuero, TX, and Mildred Moore of Hinesville; special lifelong friends, Rilene Folsom, and June Sellers; special niece, Mary Lee Baxley; and a host of family members, nieces, nephews, and many friends.

A funeral service will be held Thursday, July 17, 2025, at 3:00 P.M. from the Big Oaks Church of God with Reverend Mark Grimes, Sister Virginia Herrington, and Reverend Gary Horton officiating.

Mrs. Miller will lie in state one hour prior to the service on Thursday.

Interment will follow in Appling Memorial Gardens.

Active Pallbearers are Gene Thompkins, Jason Thompkins, Ronnie Wiggins, Darin Creamer, Cody Spikes, and Darrell Creamer.

Honorary Pallbearers are friends and members of Big Oaks Church of God, Comfort Care Hospice, Dr. Orly and staff, Heart of GA, Amy with Diversified Industries, Tom Anderson with Moms Meals, Jayna and Jessica with Help at Home, and Reverend Mike Lee.

The staff of Nobles Funeral Home is honored to serve the family of Mrs. Frances Louise Thompkins Miller.

“ I hated to hear of this, Ms. Miller was the sweetest person, I worked with her at B.C. Moore's in the shoe dept. My daddy (Mr. Jimmy Turner) was our boss. We did work, But always laughing , and she always gave me Godly advice. Although a few times daddy put me in a different department, I guess he thought we were playing, laughing to much and we were. Praying for the entire family I know she loved her family deeply and talked of you all with such pride, she loved yall so much, Praying God comforts you all in this, always put God first.

God Bless,
Kimberly Turner Davis
