“ To my true and faithful friend. You are now in God's hands and resting in peace. You left behind a wonderful wife and you are truly missed. There is an adage " Some people come and go in your life and never leave a trace and some leave their mark upon your heart Forever. " You are the latter and my heart and life will never be the same. I love you!

“ Please accept my sincere condolences. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things to deal with in life. However, we can draw comfort from the Bible account of the resurrection of Jesus' friend, Lazarus, recorded at John 11: 11-14. Just as Jesus awakened Lazarus, one day we too will see our loved ones again as promised at John 5:28, 29 and Rev. 21: 3, 4. Until that day comes, it is my hope that you will draw comfort from the words found at Jeremiah 29: 11, 12. We are assured that when we pray to Jehovah God, he will listen.
