

Glenda Dykes Jeffords

October 11, 1940 - July 21, 2024

Nobles Funeral Home announces with deep sorrow the passing of Ms. Glenda Dykes Jeffords, age 83, who peacefully departed on Sunday, July 21, 2024, at Altamaha Healthcare in Jesup. Ms. Jeffords, a cherished member of the Appling County community her entire life, devoted many years as a cashier at Winn-Dixie. She was known for her unwavering love as a dedicated wife, nurturing mother, and affectionate grandmother. A faithful member of Memorial Freewill Baptist Church, she found solace in church gatherings and gospel music while enjoying the simple pleasures of farming and raising her family. Ms. Jeffords is preceded in death by her beloved husband, Samuel Jeffords, her parents Roy and Minne Lee Smith Dykes, and her son-in-law Ricky Brantley. She is survived by her loving children Wayne Jeffords and Cheryl Brantley; cherished grandchildren Ray Chace (Vicky) and Desiree Powell; as well as siblings Troy Dykes, Betty Herrin, Janice Messer, and Vivian Carter. A ceremony to honor her life will take place on Thursday, July 25, 2024, at 11:00 A.M. at Memorial Freewill Baptist Church with Reverend Doug Weisel officiating. Interment will follow in Memorial Freewill Baptist Church Cemetery. The family will receive friends on Wednesday, July 24, 2024, from 6:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M. at Nobles Funeral Home Chapel. Brian Horton, David Crosby, Dustin Crosby, Cody Bruce, and Ray Chace will serve as active pallbearers with the Appling County EMA and all attendees as honorary pallbearers. In this time of sorrow, Nobles Funeral Home extends its support to the family of Ms. Glenda Dykes Jeffords during this difficult period of loss and remembrance.

Tribute Wall

HC

“ Thinking of the family, during the time of "susie" homegoing! My prayers are with you, that you may be have comfort in God, as only he can give.

Harold carter - July 25, 2024 at 02:52 PM