

Graham Bryan Eason

September 7, 1957 - May 19, 2019

Nobles Funeral Home and Crematory announces the funeral services for Mr. Graham Bryan Eason, 61 of Washington, passed away Sunday, May 19, 2019, at his home.

Graham was born September 7, 1957, in Waycross, Georgia. He attended ABAC and then attended the University of Georgia and received a BS in Forest Resources. He was employed for 35 years with Southland Timber, which later became Canal Wood. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Washington.

He is survived by his wife of 38 years, Teresa, and by his three daughters, Leigh Oxendine (Chris), Jessica Northenor (Brett), and Paige Gordon (Daniel); and by his grandchildren, Noah and Sophie Oxendine, Sam and Cal Northenor, and Mary Charlotte, Graham, and Harry Gordon; by his brother, Payne Eason (Sandra), of Baxley; and by his sister, Susan O'Quinn of Baxley, and by several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his brother and sister-in-law, Lamar and Sue Tyre.

Funeral services will be 11:00am on Tuesday, May 21, 2019, at the Washington First Baptist Church with Rev. Kevin Madden officiating.

Graveside service will be held Tuesday afternoon at 5:00pm at Omega Cemetery.

Interment will follow.

Active Pallbearers will be Dillon Edenfield, Christopher Eason, Samuel Swain, Brian Turner, Dallas Lightsey, Tim Burnam, and Walt Swain.

Honorary Pallbearers will be Michael Wells, Ira Tiller, Jimmy Wheatley, Craig Clayton, Derrick Thornton, Gene Thornton, Bryan Babjak, Chip Chandler, Sparky Newsome, Mercer Harris, Jim DeWeese, Richard Maxwell, Robbie Eubanks, Heartland Hospice, and the Doctor's and staff of Medical Oncology Associates of Augusta.

The family will receive friends Monday evening, May 20, 2019, from 6-8pm at Hopkins Funeral Home in Washington.

Nobles Funeral Home and Crematory is honored to serve the family of Mr. Graham Bryan Eason

Tribute Wall

JM

“ Teresa and family, I am so very sad to hear this news. Know that you and Graham are in my thoughts. Fond memories of our high school days...sending love and comfort your way. My sincere condolences. Jackie McLean

Jackie McLean - May 20, 2019 at 12:00 AM