“ Dearest Harold, there is peace and rest for you now, and it gives me so much comfort in knowing that. I have the memories of sharing times with you at our grandmothers house many years ago, just you and me. We were definitely the favorites, at least we thought so! Mama just loved you dearly, and remember when I was sick, and you showed up driving the Hearst...sure scared the neighbors and gave all of us a belly laugh. I have always missed your calls to chat about family and old stories. What an awesome cousin I had! Love you Harold Martin!
