

James Ellis "J.E." Spell

December 19, 1944 - June 27, 2020

Nobles Funeral Home and Crematory announces the funeral services for Mr. James Ellis "J.E." Spell, age 75, who passed away Saturday, June 27, 2020 at his residence. He was a native and lifelong resident of Appling County; the owner of J.E. Spell Construction and a member of the Altamaha Church of God.

Preceding him in death was his wife, Betty Vencil Spell; son, Jamie Spell and his parents, James Willis and Pauline Smith Spell.

Surviving is his daughter, Vencil Spell of Brunswick; son, J.R. Spell of Valdosta; ten grandchildren, Jeramie Spell, Michael Durrence, Jonathan Durrence, Collin Spell, Kinsley Spell, Morgan Spell, Jessica Spell, Austin Spell, Hannah Poppell and Eric Spell; seven great grandchildren, Kaitlynn Spell, Hunter Spell, Allie Spell, Kylie McKenzie, Jaxston Spell, Fisher Spell and Gunner Smiley.

Graveside funeral services will be held Tuesday, June 30, 2020 at 11 A.M. from the Surrency City Cemetery with the Reverend R.M. Warren and Paschol Pearce officiating.

Active Pallbearers will be Jeramie Spell, Jonathan Durrence, Michael Durrence, Austin Spell, Matt Conner and Kyle Smiley.

Honorary Pallbearers will be Eric Spell and Collin Spell.

Nobles Funeral Home and Crematory is honored to serve the family of Mr. James Ellis "J.E." Spell.

Tribute Wall

WA

“ Wanda lit a candle for

Wanda - July 14, 2020 at 12:00 AM

JR

“ Jennifer Reeves lit a candle for

Jennifer Reeves - June 28, 2020 at 12:00 AM