“ Mr. Reynolds. Loved the teacher and the coach! My only complaint was that he gave our math tests back in the order of the highest score to the lowest. I was always close to the bottom. He tried very hard to teach me and I loved him for not giving up.

“ Oh how I loved Mr. Reynolds. I was very young when a friend and I took swimming lessons with him. He scared me at first, then he carried me around and made friends with me. I was swimming in no time. I loved him forever after that. May God comfort you all and give you strength through this time.
