“ James Conual "Rat" Wright, I'm so sorry to hear that you passed. Losing someone is never easy, and it feels even more profound when it's someone like you. Your presence was one that couldn't go unnoticed, and your absence will surely leave a void in the lives of all who knew you.

You were a unique individual, "Rat," with a spirit that was unmatched. Your quick wit, infectious laughter, and genuine kindness made you a true friend to all. Whether it was cracking jokes or lending an ear, you were always there for those in need.

Your passing is a loss that will be felt deeply. Though you may no longer be physically present, your memory will forever live on in the hearts of those who cherished you. It's a reminder that life is fragile and every moment should be cherished.

“ I met James back in the eighty's during my early teaching years. He always had a big smile on his face and loved his animals . He would also do anything to help you if needed. I had the honor of working with his mother Christine for many years, and the pleasure of teaching his family members. I will never forget "Rat" and the laughs shared during those years. RIP my friend you are finally home.
