“ My heart truly breaks for all of you. Baby Jess, as we all called her, lit up the room with her smile. There are so many wonderful memories of laughter and times she comforted me during crazy life experiences. She had a heart of gold and will truly be missed. Many prayers for God's peace and strength through this journey of grief💜

“ I was so upset on Saturday when told of Jessica's passing. She was a good nurse, a caring person and a trusted co-worker. We had a lot of laughs as she worked at both dialysis facilities. I know she will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with all the family as you settle Jessica's business and take care of her precious girls. With love.
