

Jonathan Dale Self

December 8, 1971 - June 21, 2026

In Loving Memory of Jonathan Self
December 8, 1971 – June 21, 2026

Jonathan Self, 54, passed away on June 21, 2026. While our hearts are broken by his passing, we choose to remember and celebrate the life he lived, the memories he gave us, and the love he shared with those around him.

Jonathan was a man who loved deeply, worked hard, and never met a stranger. He was known for his quick wit, his stories, his love for family, and his ability to leave a lasting impression on those who knew him. Whether sitting on the porch, sharing a laugh, lending a hand, or spending time with the people he loved, Jonathan lived life in a way that was uniquely his own.

Above all, Jonathan was a husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend. He leaves behind a family who loved him dearly and who will forever cherish the memories, lessons, and moments they shared with him. Though relationships may not always be perfect, love remains, and his family will carry that love with them for the rest of their lives.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Jehu Traver and Gloria Jean Self.

Jonathan is survived by his wife, Donna Self; his daughters, Chasidy Clark and her husband, Tyler Clark, and Bridgette Bell and her husband, Andrew Bell; and his cherished grandchildren, Hadley Clark, Eliza Clark, and Rilynn Bell. He is also survived by his siblings, David and Jackie Self, Angela Self, Leah and Anthony Fortner, and Junior and Carla Self, along with numerous nieces, nephews, extended family members, and friends who will miss him dearly.

Jonathan's life reminds us of the importance of extending grace, offering forgiveness, loving people well, and never taking a single day for granted. His memory will live on through the stories told, the laughter shared, and the lives he touched.

While we grieve his absence, we find comfort in our faith and in the promise that this life is not the end. We hold tightly to the hope found in Jesus Christ and trust that God is near to the brokenhearted.

Jonathan will be greatly missed but never forgotten.

"The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit." — Psalm 34:18

Forever loved. Forever remembered.

The family asks that you donate to your favorite charity instead of sending flowers.

Nobles Funeral Home is honored to serve the family of Mr. Jonathan Dale Self.
