“ He was always willing to chat and help out no matter how busy he got, and he always seemed to approach things with the same passion that made him unmistakably Joe. I didn't know him for very long but he will be dearly missed.

“ My sincerest condolences to Lori and family. Although we haven't seen each other in a long time, I'll never forget the hospitality your family showed me those many years ago. Joe was so proud of you and took every opportunity to brag about you all. I was fortunate enough to reconnect with Joe this past year as we spent a few weeks working side by side - I am very grateful for this time. I have never met anyone more passionate about absolutely everything in their lives, and that passion had certainly not faded through the years. He took great pride in his work and the many friendships he'd cultivated along the way, but dearest to his heart was his family, and I hope you know just how much you meant to him. Wishing you all the best through this difficult time.

“ I'm going to miss you my friend. Your heart was big as Texas. Always helping others. After a 46 year friendship. We were only 15 when we met at the Motocross races. Both of us helping Greg in the pits. Cheering our friend on at the track. Lot's of happy memories. Exchanging cards thru the years. Always encouraging words, Joe was someone I could tell anything to and he would pray for me and with me in the hard times. My heart feels so broken now but he will Always live on in my heart as one of my besties forever. I love you Joe.

To Lorrie and family I will continue to pray for you. May peace and understanding come over you. Please let me know if you need anything.

Love, Sandy Suhler

“ I first met Joe about 20 years ago. Although I rarely was actually in present with him, we worked on many jobs together. We shared stories of our families as they grew, and later, traded pictures of our grandkids. Lately I watched the progress of the garden that he was so proud of and his pergola.

We didn't get together often but once, while he and Lorrie were in Salmon Arm, we took them to a junior hockey game. Joe enjoyed it but Lorrie was a bit shocked by the amount of fighting.

Joe was a terrific friend and I will miss him.

“ I extend my sincere condolences to Joe's wife Lorrie and their children.

I am deeply saddened to hear about the passing of Joe and will miss him.

I have had many years of good times working with Joe. He always tried to make himself available to help when I asked, which is a testament to his kind, caring nature. Joe was an intelligent guy ready with an answer. We often talked about other things unrelated to work, whether religion, politics, or his latest patio project. He was affirmed in his faith that when leaving this world, he would be in the presence of the Lord. He was eager to see his grandchildren and always ready to share pictures and stories of his family that he loved.

Joe will be missed by those who knew him.

Until I see you again, rejoice, my friend.

“ I had the pleasure of sharing many days over many years, on work sites and dinners either alone or as a group with Joe. He was expressive, fun, and very good at his job. Recently, all I heard about was Lori's garden and all the new things she was growing. He was so proud of you Lori. I'm very glad I was able to share a few meals with the both of you in Orangeburg. Although I can't share in the same way, I share in your sadness. I pray for your family as you go through this very difficult time.
