“ Lee was a honorable man. I met him in within the past few years. He was a very charismatic man. I saw him at auctions and the flea market from time to time. Said he was working on his next cd. Currently I had (Keys To The Caribbean) cd that he handed me a few years back. I gave him some small items from my booth at the market and told him to keep it no charge. The next time I saw him he gave me few buck and I declined to take it, he insisted. Now he does not have to feel anymore pain. I bet hes in the Caribbean signing away under a palm tree.

“ Mr Lee was a special friend with my dad and some of my uncles. He worked with them at FRP/Akzo. He also played golf with them alot . When you were at the softball fields you would also find Mr Lee watching and having fun at the games. As I could remember he enjoyed watching alot of sports. My dad and uncles mentioned his name alot as a special friend and that person to hang around with because Mr. Lee was just to be fun around. Condolences and prayers to the Britt family.
