“ Aunt Lee, I will always remember as a young girl being at your house and loving the music, you always had the radio playing. You will be missed. It just won't seem right when I think of my Mama's home town without thinking of Aunt Lee being there. R.I.P. Sweet Lady.

“ I remember my family visiting Aunt Lee when we drove across country as a child and we always enjoy all of her animals especially Molly her cow. No indoor plumbing but we always loved her open arms and loving heart. As an adult I always loved our visits and girl talk. I will always love and miss you, Rest In Peace

“ Leottice will be dearly missed. I will miss our summer visit talks. I am very happy that I had several years to visit with Lee. Growing up in Baxley, I always thought Lee was so beautiful and she had such a sweet temperament. She raised a wonderful family with the same kind and loving temperament. Enjoy a well deserved rest in the loving arms of God. Lovingly, your sister, Carolyn Russell Everhart
