“ I'll never forget the daySomeone rang to tell meThat you'd gone away.The hurt is the same,Like an open wound.There are daysI don't utter a sound.Some days the pain is stronger.It makes me sick and weak.I can't stand this much longer.I just sit here and weep.I've shut my private doorAnd let no one in,Locking myself in a box. They try, but I won't give in. You were like a rock,Strong, faithful and true.What worth has my lifeNow that I don't have you?I was your last born,Daddy's little girl.I took my own pathBut was still part of your world.I was not the best,Guilty of neglect,But you know, Daddy dearest,I had so much respect.I always loved you,My dad, my star.Now my pain isTo worship you from afar.I love you nowAs I did back then.I just hope... one dayI will see you again.I am so proud of you,Brave and strong to the end.Now when asked, "How are you?"There is no need to pretend.We all love and miss you so much; sleep well,and take care of all who went before you.Forever in my heart!
