“ Bob was one of the sweetest guys in our class. In the 7th grade I was on crutches for a while and he offered to help me with my books. He was a gentleman. It had to be rough having your dad be the principal, but I never heard him complain. Rest In Peace.

“ Bob you were one a a kind. Very soft spoken. All the years working around you I can never remember you upset. I love your stories of your family, very proud of your daughters. You shared more newspapers than anyone I know. You are missed until we meet again you will be in our hearts. Enjoy your wings Love, Irene and Bill.

“ Rest in peace my friend! I will always treasure your friendship and the memories that we shared. I have so many fond memories of you coming into the Scott Bridge office and sharing your lunch, Atlanta Journal Constitution (especially the opinion page), your life stories, jokes and your general knowledge. You had such a caring heart that you enriched the lives of all that were privileged to know you. I can't help but remember one day at the Midway yard when you came in to the office with lunch a little earlier than usual complaining how slow the day was going by. You said that you were looking forward to a fast half hour. I will never forget how upset you were that after eating our lunch, reading the ajc and discussing the topics of the day that it had only been ten minutes and you still had 20 minutes until lunch was over. You got disgusted and said I am going back to work early. The next day you came in and told me that you had left early because you had felt like you had been there for 24 hours and not 8. I was truly blessed by your friendship. Joel, Jackie and family my thoughts and prayers are at this time of saying your earthly goodbyes to this wonderful man. May your memories bring you comfort in the days, weeks and years ahead. I truly love this picture of Bob, it captured the his love for life.

“ Hearing of Bob's passing made me go back and look at our AHS yearbook, and floods of memories came back as I turned the pages. It seems like only a few years ago that Bob was crowned "Mr. AHS" and "Best Looking" in our Senior Class. Alas too many years have passed by way too quickly, but His smile in the obit picture looks like he continued to enjoy life and find contentment. I pray for comfort and encouragement for each of you during these difficult days.
