“ Daddy I truly do miss you!!!! I remember when I was about five years old and you dressed up as Santa at the company party. You called my name and I run to sit up in your lap, the minute I sat down and looked up into your eyes I knew it was you daddy. You asked me if I had been good or bad and I replied , daddy you know I've been good and with a smile on your face you placed your finger upon your lip and said shhhhh!!! I still remember what you gave me that day, it was a little kit of play makeup. you were the best SANTA ever and you played Santa for many many years to come! you will always be in my heart daddy!! Wait for us at the pearl gates daddy we will see you soon!!! I LOVE YOU DADDY XXXX OOOO

“ Uncle Bob was a real good guy, when I went to his house there was always something to eat. He always made sure everyone was fed and safe. I don't know why, but he always liked laying on the floor with his head propped up against the couch, from what I remember. He will surely be missed.
