“ Uncle Sammy,
I truly cannot believe that you're gone. I can sit here and think of hundreds of stories with you being mostly the hero and sometimes the villain (when you were acting like you were cutting off my toes, or spanking Angela and myself for laughing) but, I would not change anything. Well, maybe one you would still be here. You always made every one of us feel special by spending time with us and showing us attention, even if some was picking at us! I pray that you are in Heaven with momma, and Walter. I know they wee extremely excited to see you! You were one in a million and there will never be another one of you. We all love you very much and you are truly missed, and forever will be! Forever loved and never forgotten!
