“ Keely, Steve, and I worked together for almost 20 years. He was a great guy. He was so proud of you. I am Remo Williams. I never thought I would have to be writing this. If you need any help with his personal property you can find me on his Friends list. I loved him like a brother, and that's all we called each other. It helps a little to know that he is with God and the Angels. Stay strong and you know how to get ahold of me. RIP Brother, Remo Williams
