“ I miss you terribly my first and biggest love. My best friend and soul mate. No one ever could or ever will hold a candle to you. My heart aches still. Most nights I still cry myself to sleep. I miss our almost daily text messages. If I knew the day before you left us was going to be the last time, I would've called instead. Just to hear the sound of your voice one more time and hopefully hear your contagious laugh. I'll forever cherish the little love messages in the Mother's Day and Valentines Day cards you gave me. I hope to look back on them without so much pain one day. I love you still and always will. Continue to look over me as you always did and said that you would. Regardless of who was in our lives momentarily. Because we were permanent, as soul mates always are. Love Continues eternally.

Your's forever, as promised.

“ Wendell was one of favorite cousins growing up because he was so kind and had a great sense of humor! I wish we all could have gotten together sooner because now we have to wait until we get to heaven and he will surely be missed!

“ To a man that my boys, my aunt, and myself loved dearly and had the absolute pleasure and joy of getting to know...

Wendell,

My words can't express how much your presence here on earth impacted myself, Karter, and Beckett. It was a joy and the biggest blessing for you to come into our lives when you did. You are truly the most kind, loving, generous, humble, patient and amazing man I have ever met in my life.. hands down. It doesn't feel real having lost you. I can't believe I will never get to embrace one of your big hugs you give, that Karter and Beckett won't be able to drive you up the wall with their crying and banging, that we won't get to laugh at stupid ginger billy videos together, that I won't hear your loud ass burping ever again or your southern twang. I do know that you will be watching over myself and my family from Heaven. God must have needed you up there really bad... even though there are plenty of people down here on earth that respected you and needed you daily. I look forward to the day we meet again, and the boys and I love you so much. You have no idea how much you impacted my families life every single day. I am eternally grateful. You were there for us in some of my darkest moments and it was truly an honor to have gotten to know and loved you like my blood. Rest in Peace
